Dear Fraser:

Subject: [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

You are probably aware that [REDACTED] is now 25X1A9a living in the Washington area while attempting to locate a position. To date he has had no success. [REDACTED] cannot use him 25X1A8a on a contract basis, and the other leads he has pursued with agencies employing translators have failed to bear fruit. In true Middle East fashion he seems so far to have refused to face reality and look for a stop-gap job with hotels, travel agencies, restaurants, etc.

Edmund has now asked us whether we would put in a word for him with the [REDACTED]. We pointed out the hazards in giving up his U.S. residence status, but when he persisted we agreed to make an informal check with the [REDACTED]. 25X1C8a

Could you explore this matter unofficially on an inter-mediate level with the [REDACTED] during your upcoming coverage coordination meeting in [REDACTED]. Please keep it on an informal basis and avoid any indication of official [REDACTED] interest. 25X1A6a

Probably your best approach would be to pass the word that you have heard that [REDACTED] now in the States, is looking for work as a monitor or translator. You can then describe his qualifications and offer to put the [REDACTED] in touch with him.

Sincerely,

Acting Chief, [REDACTED]
